

Tax Discussion Group Hobart

25 July – 21 November 2024

BDO Hobart

1 CPD hour per session

Connect, discuss, and collaborate with your tax discussion group!

The Tax Discussion Groups are tailor-made to equip you with the tax technical skills, industry contacts and professional understanding to lead your team and your own development with confidence.

Meetings are held the third Thursday of every month from July to November with attendee numbers are strictly limited per session.

Each session includes group tax discussion on a special topic and monthly tax update around problem in practice or current and recent tax cases delivered in-person.

Who should attend?

This Tax Discussion Group is a series of monthly events covering matters tax professions encounter in their practice that merit exploration in a discussion group format.

All subscriptions are valid for 2024 only. Please see the registration page for registration options.
