Tuesday 19 March 7.30-9:00am AEDT Hall & Wilcox Level 18/347 Kent St Sydney	Part 2: SMSFs and super - Where are we? The ever-changing superannuation environment means keeping up to date is essential. In this breakfast session we will cover: • The impact of the $3 million super balance cap and how the law is intended to operate • Developments in the law and administration of non-arm's length income applying to SMSFs • Opportunities to take advantage of tax benefits of super contributions before the Stage 3 tax cuts take place; and • Other developments and court decisions on SMSFs and superannuation.	Speaker: Graeme Colley, Super Concepts Tax update presenter: Lynda Rochas, Brentnalls NSW
Tuesday 16 April 7.30-9:00am AEST Hall & Wilcox Level 18/347 Kent St Sydney	Part 3: Changing Residency Using case studies, this session will consider the planning opportunities, tips and traps that can arise when client's cease, commence or resume tax residency in Australia. Starting with a quick review of the residency rules for individuals, companies and trusts, the session will use practical examples to explore the tax implications faced in changing residency for private clients.	Speaker: Rose McEvoy, Brown Wright Stein Lawyers Tax update presenter: Aritree Barua, Brown Wright Stein Lawyers

Tuesday 14 May 7.30-9:00am AEST Hall & Wilcox Level 18/347 Kent St Sydney	Part 4: Tax Planning: Year-end trust distributions In this presentation, we will cover: • The key to effective distribution resolutions • The difference between trust income and net (taxable) income and why it matters • Distributions to non-resident beneficiaries • Lost trust deeds and trusts that have already vested; and • Case law update: General trust law, section 100A, Part IVA (and the lesser known sections 100AA and 100AB).	Speaker: Todd Bromwich, Hall & Wilcox Lawyers
Tuesday 18 June 7.30-9:00am AEST Hall & Wilcox Level 18/347 Kent St Sydney	Part 5: Division 7A - what you need to know, why are we still talking about it?? This session will provide an update on the latest case law and ATO views on Division 7A. The session will include practical tips for getting Division 7A right, including strategies for dealing with Unpaid Present Entitlements, what you need to do before and after 30 June and some recent problems encountered in practice.	Speaker: Jane Harris, CTA, Brown Wright Stein Lawyers Tax update presenter: Anna Ritchie, Brown Wright Stein Lawyers
Tuesday 23 July 7.30-9:00am AEST Hall & Wilcox Level 18/347 Kent St Sydney	Part 6: CGT (Capital Gains Tax) + Small business tax concessions This session will focus on the common practical issues arising from the small business CGT concessions and will aim to provide tips to practitioners in applying the small business concessions in various real world scenarios including business sales, share sales, and property (including primary production property) transactions. This session will cover the following: • Before we start – is it really a CGT asset? • Overview of the basic conditions, including look through tests for interests in entities • Making best use of the concessions, including the 2 year deferral under the small business rollover • Active asset test issues, including the 'main use' requirement • Satisfying the 'in connection with retirement' requirement • The treatment of deferred consideration under the small business concessions • The accounting and legal treatment of exempt payments made to CGT concession stakeholders; and • Documentation, payment, and election requirements; what to do, and by when.	Speaker: Warren Smith, CTA, Brentnalls NSW Tax update presenter: Bradley White, Hall & Wilcox Lawyers

Tuesday 20 August 7.30-9:00am AEST Hall & Wilcox Level 18/347 Kent St Sydney	Part 7: Trust Part 1: Estate Planning for Discretionary Trusts – passing wealth to the next generation Estate Planning includes reviewing non-estate assets such as discretionary trusts. Using real life case studies, this session will outline typical client's objectives for asset protection, tax effectiveness and ease administration in estate planning for discretionary trusts. The focus of this session is to help your client's navigate the transfer of control and benefit of the assets of the trust to pass to the next generation whilst preserving their objectives: • Passing control: appointor succession, individual trustee v corporate trustee • Review the Trust Terms: beneficiaries? power to amend? vesting date? • Client's Objectives: Leave the discretion to trustee, hardwire the terms of the trust or wind up the trust?	Speaker: Lisa To, CTA, Bartier Perry Pty Ltd Tax update presenter: Oscar Dougherty, FTI, HWL Ebsworth Lawyers
Tuesday 17 September 7.30-9:00am AEST Hall & Wilcox Level 18/347 Kent St Sydney	Part 8: Trust Part 2: Trusts and Trustee Obligations In 2022, the ATO estimated that there were over 1 million trusts in Australia, the most common being discretionary family trusts. Trusts are increasingly used as the main investment vehicle for many families, as well as for family and non-family joint ventures. Trustees of trusts are subject to a myriad of duties and obligations arising from statutes and also from case law. Many of these duties are far reaching, and are increasingly being used by regulators, creditors and beneficiaries when disputes arise. This session will discuss the increasing real-life obligations that trustees are facing, strategies which may be implemented to decrease risks and what clients need to be aware of when becoming trustees.	Speaker: Chris Tsovolos, FTI, Bartier Perry Pty Ltd Tax update presenter: Hayden Rudd, CTA, Brown Wright Stein Lawyers
Tuesday 22 October 7.30-9:00am AEST Hall & Wilcox Level 18/347 Kent St Sydney	Part 9: Payroll Tax – Employment Agency Provisions Over the past 5 years, Revenue NSW has been aggressive in using the employment agency provisions in circumstances going well beyond labour hire arrangements. The employment agency provisions are now at the forefront of payroll tax audits in New South Wales. This practical, case study-based session will cover the following: • How the employment agency provisions operate and the consequences when they apply. • Some scenarios where they have applied and some scenarios where they have been found not to apply. • How group arrangements can now be caught by the employment agency provisions and "turn-off" the contractor exemptions; and • Practical steps that can be adopted for reducing the risk that the employment agency provisions apply.	Speaker: Matthew Mckee, FTI, Brown Wright Stein Lawyers Tax update presenter: Rose McEvoy, Brown Wright Stein Lawyers

Part 10: Division 296 – a tax divided

The potential introduction of Division 296 tax for higher super balances from 1 July 2025 imposes a new way of taxing wealth not previously seen in Australia. Individuals are taxed on increases in their adjusted total super balance above $3 million, including unrealised capital gains, for an income year. Any new tax brings with it strategies to minimise or avoid its impact in the lead up to its introduction, during the initial stages and ongoing. This breakfast session will take you through the details of how the new legislation is likely to work in practice, or otherwise, as well as strategies to reduce or eliminate the impact of Div 296 tax on affected clients.
